TEQUILA

Extra Añejo

Aged in small batch french oak barrels, the agave is still there — it has to be — but now it speaks in a lower register: cocoa, leather, old library. A fantastic, domesticated with time, fine high proof Tequila Tres Ese to sit with, the way you sit with a fine cognac.

TASTING NOTES

NOSE	Dark cocoa nib leads into a cluster of dried figs, sweet pipe tobacco and a touch of worn leather.
PALATE	Dense and velvety — chocolate, candied orange, espresso, aged oak.
FINISH	Very long. Warming spice, aged wood, a soft whisper of agave.

Origin — Los Altos de Jalisco, 2,030 m elevation. Agave grown organically in iron-rich red soil, hand-harvested at full maturity. Cooked slowly in brick ovens, naturally fermented in oak wooden vats, twice-distilled in copper pot stills, then aged in small batch french oak barrels. Water drawn from a 400 meter natural well on our hacienda.
